

Celebration of Excellent Women

2009

Nomination Process

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY BEFORE YOU BEGIN THE NOMINATION PROCESS!

Celebration of Excellent Women was created in 2001 to provide an open venue for women to expand professionally and personally through a targeted annual celebration. Now in its 9th year it is New Mexico's largest networking event for business women. The event has grown to include Northern New Mexico as well as Albuquerque.

Nomination Categories

Business & Entrepreneur

Civic Leadership – Public or Military service on the local, state or federal level that has enhanced the quality of life for residents of New Mexico.

Communications – Involvement in public relations, media, marketing, advertising or related fields.

Health & Wellness Professionals – Involvement in health or alternative health occupations or health and wellness concerns.

Liberal Arts – Artist, musician or teacher.

Non-Profit & Community Service – Involvement in a substantial effort that has had a major impact on New Mexico.

Professional – All other professions

Rising Star – Individual under 35 years of age who has shown exceptional business achievements and has demonstrated outstanding skills and perseverance.

Science & Technology – Architects, database or information managers, engineers, environmentalists, researchers, systems analysts, involvement in internal or hardware/software development.

Nomination Guidelines

- Specify only one category of nomination from the list above; a category must be selected for the nomination to be considered (see downloadable Nomination form)
- Nominator should describe, in a one page cover letter, the reason for the nomination and how this individual is a leader and role model within the chosen category.
- Selected nominees will go through a interview process.